From the Roc Catholics Northwest Vocations Committee:

Do you know what Lay Ecclesial Ministers (LEM) are? They are lay women and men who are designated by a pastoral leader to serve the church in a particular area of ministry. They receive the needed training and work closely with bishops, priests, and deacons. We have lots of them serving in our 7 parishes—e.g., catechetical leaders, pastoral ministers, youth ministers, school principals, and directors of liturgy or music. To highlight and encourage vocations to lay ecclesial ministry, the Vocations Ministry is interviewing some of our local LEMs. Every so often you'll see one of these interviews in bulletins and on the Roc Catholics Northwest website: ROC Catholics Northwest or <https://www.roccatholicsnorthwest.org>

To the St. Lawrence Community,

Holy Cross Food Pantry received a tremendous donation of food items from your parishioners. Sue, Bob and Frank carried items from 2 cars into our pantry/office area. We received enough tuna fish, peanut butter, cereal, pasta, sauce, macaroni and cheese, toilet paper and soup to stock our shelves to overflowing. Many other items will also be shelved or placed on our miscellaneous table.

We are grateful for your generous, giving hearts.

Blessings,

Kathy Fennell
