From the ROC Catholics Northwest Vocations Committee: An interview with lay ecclesial minister, Lee Ventrella (Parish Minister for Homebound and Hospital Visitation at St. Charles Borromeo)

What brought you to this ministry? I have volunteered in the Church since my early teens when I helped a nun clean the sacristy and washed and ironed purificators. Later, I taught in the religious ed. program and helped with my family at the coffee hour after Sunday Mass. While on a business trip, I became very ill and almost died. In the hospital, volunteers brought me Holy Communion, and a local priest anointed me. I was overwhelmed with love and the presence of Our Lord. When I recovered, I started serving in this ministry to “give back.” When the Coordinator at St. Charles retired, Fr. John Firpo asked me to take her place. I responded that I had to think about it, and I prayed. I was retired and this was a “job,” much more than volunteering. I know that the Holy Spirit took over and gave me the nudge that I needed to tell Father John that I would lead this Ministry. To read Lee’s full interview and learn more about the ministry to the homebound and hospital visitation at St. Charles, visit the ROC Catholics Northwest website: ROC Catholics Northwest or <https://www.roccatholicsnorthwest.org>
